TABLET TO FALLEN HEROES UNVEILED IN GLASGOW HALL

By Rev. Mr. Sinclair, at Reception and Presentation to Returned Men Monday Night, Which Was Preceded by a Banquet.

Soldiers Presented With Addresses and Medals—Relative of Dead Soldiers Also Remembered With Addresses.

During the past year, cities, towns and villages have been celebrating the centenary of the battle of Tewkesbury. The battle was fought on May 4, 1471, and was a decisive victory for the Yorkists over the Lancastrians. The battle was fought on the banks of the River Sever, near the town of Tewkesbury. The battle was a turning point in the Wars of the Roses, and it marked the end of the Lancastrian dynasty. The battle was fought on a field that was once a forest, and it was a very bloody battle. The battle was fought on a field that was once a forest, and it was a very bloody battle. The battle was fought on a field that was once a forest, and it was a very bloody battle.

One of the outstanding events of this nature took place in the Public Hall, Glasgow Station, on Monday

Now many of our subscribers are reviewing their subscriptions, we naturally hear many things. The Mercury is some appreciative and kindly criticism, but for them all, Editors are only fallible, and it is always helpful to get criticism. We have also enjoyed some friendly visits from some of our readers which we all intend to help to produce a better Mercury.

Among the kind letters received was one from Mr. H. M. Warren, M.P. for the County of Devon, who writes:

"As a paper The Mercury has been a great help to me, and I am sure has the good will of the farmers of this constituency. Personally we have been very anxious to do our best to extend our greetings and wishes to the editors and his staff."

ELECTION CARD

To the Electors of the Town of Newfrew

Ladies and Gentlemen, I am offering myself as a candidate for the Mayoralty for the Town of Newfrew, and have given the town good service in the past, and am prepared to again serve the town in the same capacity with interest. In looking back over the past year, I have been glad to serve their seats as early as possible. The plans open January 1st.

RENFREW 25 YEARS AGO

From Mercury Files of 1894.

Frederick Hillard was expecting the building operations would be brisk in Renfrew in 1894. In this he was to have been wrong during the winter dressing up some handsome home buildings which he had located in a quarry near Douglas.

An entertainment under the auspices of the Catholic Order of Foresters was held in the Temperance Hall. The program was provided almost entirely by people of the convent. A bitter storm in the early evening had the effect of keeping down the attendance.

At a meeting of the South Renfrew Farmers' Institute in the Temperance Hall, Renfrew, H. McLaren was elected president; P. R. Macdonald, vice-president; Gregor MacIntyre, secretary; G. Cardie, D. Stewart, W. Barry, John Johnston and A. J. Lindsay, directors.

James Craig and Wm. Mills were in the field for election as Renfrew's first mayor. P. R. Macdonald, vice-president, and W. R. MacIntyre, secretary, were also nominated. Nominations were held in the town hall, followed by speech-making in the Temperance hall.

The canvas roof of the skating rink at the end of the main street was a few young people were in the rink at the time but they all managed to escape serious injury.

Mann was recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO IN NEAR-BY PLACES

W. J. Munro of Pembroke bought the Elder limits at Hunterdon station on C.P.R. road, residing barrier for North Renfrew for the final revision of the Dominion voters' list.

Matthew McCrea of Hunterdon and Miss Emma Holmes of Hunterdon were married at the home of the latter in Miss Horton on December 25th.

U. F. O. IN QUEBEC

Opinion That Quebec Is Not In Need of the Organization.

(Montreal Herald, Dec. 27th).

The invasion of the Province of Quebec by the United Farmers is being met by an announcement of the first attempt to organize such a body in the county of Hull, where a meeting for this purpose has been called for Monday. The announcement states that the organizers of the Quebec movement are encouraged by the success of the Ontario Farmers' party and think the time has come when the farmers of Quebec should also organize to secure their proper representation in government.

The organizers of this movement will hold their first meeting in this province which is a dozen years ahead of Ontario in its efforts for participation of farmers in its government. It is concerned that Premier Gwynne took office fifty years ago the first plank was the welfare of agriculture, and from that policy has never departed. As a result the agriculture and dairying industry have flourished to a degree never before experienced.

The farmers of the province know that they have a full measure in government. They have a full measure in the past a practical tinshop under practical supervision and assure you that your wants will be taken care of in a first class manner as in the past. All kinds of SHEET METAL CONTRACT AND REPAIRING WORK will be carried on.

I thank you for your patronage in past and am looking forward to a share of your future business.

Yours truly,

P. F. GUEST.

The Christmas tree entertainment in the Presbyterian church, Matamoras, was well attended, notwithstanding the poor roads. All day in sleighs. There would be plenty of coal for a few days, there is a few yards on the ground. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and a lovely Christmas tree was beautifully supplied with lights. The Victory Loan drive had also of help provided. The program was supervised by Mrs. H. H. MacIntyre, and Miss Pearl Love, who were each there well remembered recitations well rendered by the children, also dialogues and singing by a number of girls. Mrs. John MacIntyre presided at the organ for the choir. A selection of solo songs were by the Misses Ferguson, Love, MacIntyre, Thompson and Carwell. The choir sang "The Christmas Song" and "The Christmas Carol." The Ladies' Home Circle was disposed of. Tickets were sold and names put in a box. The first name drawn was to win the quilt. Mr. Alex MacIntyre presented the name of Mrs. H. H. MacIntyre as the person to draw the ticket, which was Mrs. H. H. MacIntyre. She was congratulated in winning the quilt. Much credit is due to the ladies who played the quilt, which brought them a nice sum of money for the church. Next arrived Stanley MacIntyre, who was well remembered with gifts. They also received either prize book or money from the Sunday school.

Mrs. N. J. MacIntyre and Mrs. Alex MacIntyre presented their Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. P. MacIntyre and family of Glenora.

Mrs. and Mrs. Percy A. Wilson and Miss Alice spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. MacIntyre.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. MacIntyre and daughter Sarah spent the Christmas afternoon driving. They being the first snow for a long time, they were most happy to take advantage of a drive.
